

Are you building or refurbishing a house in 2015?

Would you like it to be super energy efficient, healthy and comfortable?

Would you like to know more?

Come along to our Seminar!

Where? Clarion Hotel, Co. Sligo

When? Thursday 26th February @ 7.30 pm

This seminar will abolish all of the fiction regarding heat recovery ventilation. Not only that, but it will offer you a clearer depiction and a strong argument on why it is a fundamental necessity in your home. Information will also be provided on the night regarding other building aspects such as insulation etc.
